

Convenient Access to Your Company's Account Information

Introducing new web portals from Middle Atlantic Products

Convenient, secure access to your company's account information with Middle Atlantic Products is now available with new customer web portals. Logging into your account will allow you to view important, real-time information and access Middle Atlantic Products services with ease:

- Access account pricing
- View real-time product availability
- Track orders
- Complete return requests online
- Reprint invoices
- Request literature quickly

To join and activate your customer portal account, first determine who will be your company's "Administrator." The Administrator assigns logins, removes permissions and sets the respective levels of access for each employee at your company. Once the administrator has been chosen, access the customer portal here:
